Business Feature

Wilson Ranch—Rob and Nan Wilson, Owners Log Cabin Lodging

Wilson Lodge is a refreshing escape from the pressures of modern day life. Just come and enjoy the peace and tranquility they have to offer. Several of the best hunting locations are just a short walk from the lodge.

They offer guided white-tail hunts - gun & bow, small game hunting, fishing, old fashioned buggy rides, nature viewing and photography or just plain relaxing. Our hunts require an Arkansas resident or non-resident hunting license. For complete information on lodging rates and guiding fees visit www.wilsonranch.net or call 501-270-0088.

Suddenlink Media hosted

A Salute to Chamber Members

Max Allen Furniture has been a fixture on Main Street since 1986; however, its roots lie much deeper within the Heber Springs community. Max Allen began working for Rufo Martin Furniture in 1975 before later purchasing the business. Max Allen Furniture is a full-line Lazy-Boy and Ashley furniture dealer. “Even if we don’t have what you’re looking for in stock, we can special order any piece from these two manufacturers that you might see in a magazine or online”, says Allen. They are also a Sleep Tronic Bedding dealer. Max Allen Furniture serves Cleburne County and the surrounding area and also provides free delivery to the lake area. Max Allen’s son, Greg is also very active in the business and plans to keep the family business going for generations to come.

Heber Springs Area Chamber of Commerce “Salutes” this long-time member.

KUDOS TO MEMBERS!!!

Amy’s Florist & Gifts—

My name is William R. Tharp and I am currently in Iraq. Judy took my order and was the most pleasant person on the phone. My wife, Joyce raved about the bouquet that they fixed up.....She is very happy and they made me look like a hero.....I thought you should hear about them and their way of doing business. Next time I need flowers, I know who to call.....Thanks, William

Heber Springs Gun –Ben Harper

Fred Romo, Director of the Ozark Chamber of Commerce, states his experience with Heber Springs Gun has been very positive and looks forward to doing business with him in the future.
